

NEWSLETTER July 20, 2020

Editorial – Allen Grizzard-Paul

We had a great meeting last week where Kristie Akl and Michael Shanklin from kidSTREAM, and Andrea Hassig, VP of Rancho Campana KIWIN'S joined us. It was great to have a guest speaker and Michael gave us a virtual tour of kidSTREAM showing the how all the sections will link together. They plan to open sometime next year and are expecting 150,000 guests per year. They are very appreciative of our involvement in supporting the museum as their goal is to have a community approach to building the museum. This will show that the museum belongs to the community and everyone will be very proud of it. Youth Volunteers can start at 13 and Michael said there will be opportunities for employment when the museum is up and running. kidSTREAM is not silent during this difficult time as they have created 100 Summer Learning Kits for farm worker kids.

I have a sad dollar ready to give at the next meeting for having to cut this week's newsletter a little short. Spent a lot of time Sunday in Urgent Care with an irritating case of Vertigo. Their cure was to make it a lot worse so that it can get better. The room has never spun that bad since the last time I had one too many to drink. Not sure if it worked, I will know when I go to bed tonight.

Doug's weekly trivia question: We all know what Google is but what is a Googol?"

Moor for you doggy lovers:

Never try to wash a dog in an outdoor pond.

The answer to this week trivia:

I have heard of a Googly which is a type of Spin Bowl that is used in the great game of Cricket, but I must admit Googol stumped me.

The answer is: Googol is a noun to refer to the number 10^{100} . so named by Milton Sirotta, the nephew of the American mathematician Edward Kasner, who was working with large numbers like 10^{100} .

Now you know.
