Last Week's Event

On Tuesday we had nine members and two guests at our meeting. It was especially nice to have a new face amongst us. Sylvie Garcia, who we met us at the information booth during the Heritage Festival, came to check us out. Hopefully we did not disappoint because she could be a great asset to our club as she is already involved in many community activities. Fresh ideas and new connections could certainly help our club to grow. Hope to see you at our August 20 meeting Sylvie.

On Thursday, John, Linda, Carole and I attended the Division 42, Division Council Meeting which was held at the Art Trek in Newbury Park. Art Trek is a charitable organization that teaches art to people of all ages. Thousand Oaks Club was our gracious hosts this month and their K-kids put on another program that never fails to amaze me. How kids of such a young age can put together presentation like that is certainly a great example of how Kiwanis SLP program works. At that age I don't think I could have uttered a word in front of a packed room like that.

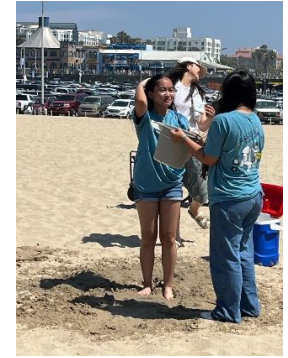

On Saturday, John and I chaperoned KIWIN'S members at their annual Beach Palooza, at Santa Monica. This is where three KIWIN'S Divisions get together for lots of fun and fundraising, ending up with a service project cleaning the beach. It was a perfect day with a slight breeze which stopped us frying up.

Not only did they have fun but they also found some ways of making money both for the clubs and for charity

Our Turquoise KIWIN'S

Of course our LT. Governor, Sheila got the bucket of water

In fact, all the District Board Members took a soaking to raise over $200 for charity. Lt. Governor, Sheila really worked hard to put this very successful event together. Great Job.

On Sunday, John, Linda, Pat, myself and a number of KIWIN'S spent the afternoon at Camarillo Ranch House helping the Ranch Foundation put on an event "The History of the Rancho Camarillo Horses".

Great turn out for this hour-long video

VP John presented Pat with her Kiwanis name badge

Little trivia: You all probably know the White Horses claim to fame was the Rose Float parade. But which famous actor rode one in one of his western movies. Not very difficult question as they also can say they performed at the pleasure of the President. Yep, you got it – Ronald Reagan.

OK one quicky from Doug if you can handle it:

-A friend of mine ordered a pizza. The clerk asked, "Do you want me to slice it in 6 or 12 slices? My friend said, "Slice it in 6 pieces. I could never eat 12 pieces!"

Have a great week.
