Last Week's Event

Hope everyone had a fun but safe 4th of July. So, you all thought you got rid of the Brits, but I'm back. Ok, I wasn't around in 1776 and I don't have a red coat, but I still have a British accent. I'm still puzzled how a country smaller than California thought they could take over a country as big as America. So, we weren't so bright back in those days. They still claim to have a bit of Canada, New Zealand, Australia and a few more. It strange how these countries won't let the Brits move in anymore but the US will. What a great country the US is.

International Convention

Our esteemed President, Darryl, represented us at this year's convention which happened to be in his second home state of Colorado. Thanks Darryl, we are looking forward to your report on how the voting went.

Darryl got there early to soak up some of the atmosphere. Or, maybe he is looking for a comfortable seat to take a nap. I have been to a few of these conventions and I know that the voting can sometime take a long time and get a little boring.

Ok, we have a bust week a head of us working the Hertage Day Festival. If you have a cell phone, please keep an eye open for a good photo shoot, and send them to me so I can use them in next weeks newsletter. Also, next Monday I have to submit our report to the Div. Newsletter and the more pictures I have the less writing I have to do. Ok, so I am a miserable pleader.

Have a great week.
