Last Week's Event

Last week we had nine members try out the Twisted Oak tavern for our meeting. We used the meeting room which can be closed off from the rest of the restaurant. It has its advantages and disadvantages. Starting at 5:30pm we were able to use the Happy Hour menu which was quite reasonable for food and drinks. The main menu was around the same prices as the Sportsman but has some nice variations. The service was very quick and without a speaker, the meeting was over in about one hour. One disadvantage is that the room only fits one long table which would not work for more than about 20 people and makes it a little difficult for some of us oldens to hear. We have booked it for the 24th of this month to give it another try.

Ok this week I owe Sylvie an apology for spelling her name Silvie. Guess I've been watching too much of the Olympics and have Silver on my brain. The newsletter editor certainly needs an editor or maybe a head hitter.

Everyone is smiling so that's a positive.

Extract from Doug's weekly communications:

- The optimist fell from a skyscraper; As he passed the 10th floor he was heard saying, "So far so good!"
 - What do you find when the smog lifts over Los Angeles? UCLA!
 - A wife goes to the Police Station to report her husband missing. The wife says, "He's 6 foot tall, slim, polite and has a nice sense of humor." Her neighbor says, "He's 5 foot tall, fat and always upset." The wife says, "I know that but who wants that one back!"
 - Hard work never killed anyone but why take a chance!
- Here is one for Carole who is about to have hip surgery which the Drs. now call a minor operation.
- A minor operation is one performed on someone else!
